

CHAPTER 4: Racial and Ethnic Families: Strengths and Stresses

Quick Quiz:

1. The process of adopting the language, values, beliefs, roles, or other characteristics of a host culture, but which does not include intermarriage, is called
  - a. acculturation.
  - b. pluralism.
  - c. immigration.
  - d. assimilation.

2. Which of the following statements is true concerning undocumented immigrants in the United States?
  - a. The majority of the men work and most pay payroll taxes.
  - b. Undocumented immigrants receive welfare and food stamps while unemployed.
  - c. Most undocumented immigrants will benefit from social security when they reach age 65.
  - d. Undocumented immigrants are not required to pay sales taxes.

3. A(n) _____ group is a set of people who identify with a particular national origin or cultural heritage.
  - a. racial-ethnic
  - b. racial
  - c. minority
  - d. ethnic

4. Behavior that treats people unequally or unfairly is called
  - a. sexism.
  - b. discrimination.
  - c. prejudice.
  - d. racism.

5. American Indian children are taught that old age is
  - a. a sign of obsolescence.
  - b. something to be avoided.
  - c. a badge of honor.
  - d. something sad that cannot be avoided.

6. A common element between Latino and Asian American families is an emphasis on
  - a. machismo.
  - b. the individual.
  - c. the importance of the family.
  - d. outside relationships.

7. The text observes that lumping all Asians together and treating them as a “model minority”
- a. is an accurate scenario.
  - b. is a racist practice.
  - c. helps them become accepted as newcomers.
  - d. ignores many subgroups that are not doing well.
8. Marriage in Middle Eastern families is
- a. usually based on romantic love.
  - b. often arranged or semi-arranged.
  - c. initiated by young adults without parental approval.
  - d. arranged by parents without input from their children.
9. Laws against marriage or sexual relations between a man and a woman of different races were called
- a. endogamy laws.
  - b. antimiscegenation laws.
  - c. homogamy laws.
  - d. racial purity laws.

Short Answer

10. What are the benefits of immigration?