

Chapter 1 Test Bank

Question 1

What demographic experienced the effect of education on one's quality of life? is felt most strongly by recent immigrants 2

- a. native-born Canadians
- b. Aboriginal Canadians
- c. recent immigrants
- d. second generation immigrants

Correct answer: c

Page: 2

Difficulty: 3

Skill: Factual/Recall

Question 2

In addition to future economic security and social mobility, education is seen as contributing to one's

- a. maturity.
- b. psychological well-being.
- c. family stability.
- d. behaviour.

Correct answer: b

Page 2

Difficulty: 1

Skill: Conceptual

Question 3

A study of social structures in the sociology of education would examine

- a. teacher-student interaction.
- b. child development.
- c. the role of bureaucracy.
- d. gender roles.

Correct answer: c

Page: 2

Difficulty: 3

Skill: Conceptual

Question 4

Social class closely relates to the _____ background of an individual and family.

- a. socioeconomic
- b. ethnic
- c. occupational
- d. cultural

Correct answer: a

Page: 2

Difficulty: 1

Skill: Conceptual

Question 5

Which of the following are not considered social structures?

- a. bureaucracy
- b. the family
- c. legal systems
- d. individual characteristics

Correct answer: d

Page: 2

Difficulty: 1

Skill: Conceptual

Question 6

“Shannen’s Dream” focused on the equal treatment of Aboriginal students, _____ and culturally-relevant curriculum.

- a. positive well-being
- b. adequate funding
- c. language preservation
- d. improved teacher training

Correct answer: b

Page: 5

Difficulty: 2

Skill: Factual/Recall

Question 7

Bringing in an outside manager to manage Aboriginal schools while mainstream schools are able to elect their own management shows a lack of _____ in Aboriginal education.

- a. structure
- b. agency
- c. leadership
- d. bureaucracy

Correct answer: b

Page: 7

Difficulty: 2

Skill: Applied

Question 8

What is considered the dominant cultural and racial group in Canada?

- a. First Nations
- b. French Canadian
- c. English Canadian
- d. "Whiteness"

Correct answer: d

Page: 8

Difficulty: 1

Skill: Conceptual

Question 9

The educational priorities of _____ have historically been viewed as different, less legitimate or inferior.

- a. immigrants
- b. First Nations communities
- c. racial minorities
- d. French Canadians

Correct answer: b

Page: 8

Difficulty: 1

Skill: Factual/Recall

Question 10

Due to isolation and insufficient resources, the Attawapiskat community faces challenges to social

- a. closure
- b. structure
- c. class
- d. mobility

Correct answer: d

Page: 9

Difficulty: 2

Skill: Applied

Question 11

Issues relating to First Nations education and housing is overseen by which level of government?

- a. municipal
- b. regional
- c. provincial
- d. federal

Correct answer: d
Page: 9
Difficulty: 2
Skill: Factual/Recall

Question 12

The _____ of Aboriginal education can be seen as more bands gain control of local schools.

- a. decentralization
- b. centralization
- c. diversity
- d. containment

Correct answer: a
Page: 9
Difficulty: 2
Skill: Conceptual

Question 13

Learning objectives and school subjects are at the center of

- a. teacher training.
- b. curriculum.
- c. the sociology of education.
- d. school administration.

Correct answer: b
Page: 10
Difficulty: 3
Skill: Conceptual

Question 14

Cultural relevant curriculum that reflects the beliefs and practices of First Nations populations reduces the impact of

- a. whiteness.
- b. socioeconomic status.
- c. social class.
- d. none of the above.

Correct answer: a
Page: 10
Difficulty: 2
Skill: Applied

Question 15

The treatment of other cultures as “inferior” can be seen by trying to assimilate First Nations children in _____ schools.

- a. private
- b. residential
- c. institutional
- d. religious

Correct answer: b

Page: 11

Difficulty: 1

Skill: Applied

Question 16

The _____ of children shapes them into the person that they become as adults.

- a. social class
- b. ethnicity
- c. socialization
- d. social mobility

Correct answer: c

Page: 11

Difficulty: 1

Skill: Conceptual

Question 17

Shannen’s comment that “It’s hard to feel pride when our classrooms are cold” exemplifies the effect of education on

- a. social mobility.
- b. well-being.
- c. educational attainment.
- d. socialization.

Correct answer: b

Page: 11

Difficulty: 1

Skill: Applied

Question 18

The decision by Aboriginal youth to attend better secondary schools in other communities reflects the importance of education in

- a. social class.
- b. agency.
- c. socialization.
- d. economic success.

Correct answer: d

Page: 11

Difficulty: 2

Skill: Applied

Question 19

The failure of education to provide _____ and job readiness results in a cycle of poverty.

- a. socialization
- b. social mobility
- c. culturally-relevant curriculum
- d. positive well-being

Correct answer: b

Page: 12

Difficulty: 2

Skill: Conceptual

Question 20

What ideological belief promotes a reliance on private enterprise within a global economy?

- a. liberalism
- b. conservatism
- c. neoliberalism
- d. neoconservatism

Correct answer: c

Page: 12

Difficulty: 3

Skill: Conceptual

Question 21

The federal government's use of third party in response to the Attawapiskat crises can be viewed as a _____ response.

- a. liberal
- b. conservative
- c. neoliberal
- d. neoconservative

Correct answer: c

Page: 12

Difficulty: 3

Skill: Applied